

AWCI National Conference 2009

Australia's Gold Coast . Blue skies. An average of 300 days of sunshine each year. Azure sea on one side of the golden sands and mountains to the west. A world-renowned resort location as the venue for our 64th National Conference.

A Gold Coast beach – where are the people?

The AWCI 2009 National Conference. October 14-18th 2009. Australian and international delegates. A comprehensive business program. Some free time to swim, golf or just relax. Designed around a family-focused location with easy activities.

Hyatt Sanctuary Cove – our Conference venue

Our exhibitors will be displaying both new and traditional products at their stands. The exhibition will cover tools and materials, services and partnerships, training and related projects. There will be some 30 exhibitors, with something for everyone.

The newly formatted AWCI Apprentices' demonstration program will showcase the up and comers from around Australia and New Zealand. And maybe even from further afield.

A spectacular Gala Awards dinner at a secret destination. Lots of glitz and glamour. Recognition of the best work the industry can offer from around the country in multiple award categories. A great night for all.

Golf Anyone?

Networking and relaxation under spring weather conditions. A chance to pitch your golfing skills against your plastering peers. What more could you want?

Accommodation costs that will surprise, and we encourage extended family attendance so everyone can have a memorable stay. Bring your kids and grandkids, or they can bring you. Just be there!

But whatever you do in 2009, you must come to the AWCI Conference. Remember:
